HOTEL:

MARRIOTT HOTEL NORTHAMPTON

IWM Duxford is Europe's largest air museum with over 300 aircraft and objects on display. Get up close to Spitfires and Hurricanes; see a portion of the original Wright Brother plane; walk through Concorde, feel dwarfed by the size of a B-52 and stand in awe of Europe's only SR-71 Blackbird – the fastest jet ever built.

Duxford Air Festival is packed full of entertainment and experiences to power the imagination. Fuel your senses with fast-flying, all-action aerobatics and spectacular sights in the air and on the ground.

ITINERARY

THURSDAY 21 MAY

Pick up by luxury coach from your designated pick up point and travel to Dublin for the Irish Ferries crossing to Holyhead. Continue your journey to our hotel in Northampton for a three-night stay with dinner each evening.

FRIDAY 22 MAY

Set off for a full day at the Duxford Air Museum, get up close and personal with over 300 aircraft including a walk-through Concorde, the world's first supersonic aircraft. Return to the hotel for evening dinner.

SATURDAY 23 MAY

After breakfast travel back to Duxford for a spectacular display at the Duxford Air Festival. Special entertainments across the museum, only available on Air Show days and all-action flying featuring fast-flying, jaw-dropping aerobatics and spectacular sights in the air. Return to the hotel for evening dinner.

SUNDAY 24 MAY

Depart after breakfast for the return journey to Holyhead with a rest and coffee stop en route. Return to Dublin, followed by immediate onward transfers to original pick up points.
